100-FOOT WHALE TO BE SHOWN HERE

Master of Ship Which Captured "Colossus" to Display Giant Monster.

From a flea circus to a whale exhibit! This is the extent of the menagerie coming to Washington, to be shown at Fourteenth and Water streets southwest, beginning next Sunday and lasting until October 14. Capt. Mike Dolan, master of many a whaling expedition on the whaling ship Hercules, is bringing "Colossus," the 100-foot whale, mounted on a specially constructed railroad car, to be viewed by thousands who may have doubted the "largest fish story."

Penguins, a giant octopus, a sea elephant and many other monsters are to be explained during the two-week visit by the original crew that captured the giant whale off the coast of Southern California.

The whale is in a perfect state of preservation, accomplished by embalming fluids.

Capt. Dolan once was shipwrecked and cast upon the coast of Ecuador, where a tribe of headhunters threatened to kill him.

Although an air-breathing mammal, whales are the greatest divers in the world, and how they sink into the lower depths of the sea, staying beneath the water while they suck tons of tiny fish into their stomach, is explained by the crew.

The whale exhibit will be open daily at 9 a.m. and lectures on the various specimens will continue throughout the entire stay here. Several orphanages and schools will be guests of Capt. Mike Dolan during his stay in Washington, it is announced.

Children's Whale Coupon

This coupon and five cents will admit any boy or girl, not over 15 years of age, to see a great monster of the deep, which will appear in Washington October 1 to October 14.

The Big Whale

will be shown on a special 100-foot railroad car at Fourteenth and Water streets from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily.

ROYALTY GOES VISITING

MISH, Yugoslavia, September 27 (AP).—King Alexander and Queen Mary of Yugoslavia, with an elaborate retinue, left today on a historic visit to Sofia, where they will be the guests of King Boris and Queen Joanna of Bulgaria.

Newspapers of both countries said the visit marked a definite rapprochement between the two Slav nations, long bitter enemies, and was a distinct contribution to the peace of Europe.

Bogoljus Yevtich, Yugoslavian foreign minister, accompanied Alexander and Marie on the royal train. A number of political questions will be discussed during the five-day visit.

CATHOLIC EDUCATORS PLAN CHICAGO SESSION

National Association Annual Fall Meeting Presided Over by Bishop Howard.

The annual Fall meeting of officers of the National Catholic Education Association took place at the Shoreham Hotel Tuesday and Wednesday to construct a program for the general convention to be held in Chicago next Easter. Bishop F. W. Howard of Covington, Ky., president general of the association, presided over the assembly.

Arrangements for the delegates were made by Dr. George Johnson, secretary general of the association, a professor of education at Catholic University. Dr. Frank Walsh of the administrative committee was the only other Washingtonian to attend.

TWO HELD FOR JURY IN ROBBERY ATTEMPT

Witness Points Out Pair—Pharmacist Unable to Identify Bandit.

An alleged bandit and a man who is charged with being his accomplice in the attempted robbery of Warren E. Hunt, a pharmacist, in front of his home in the 2500 block of Seventeenth street Monday night, yesterday were held for action of the grand jury by Police Court Judge Gus A. Schuldt.

Robert J. Surguy, 20, of the 2500 block of Q street, was identified by a witness as the man he saw running from the scene, and George S. Kiatta, 32, of the 3500 block of Fourteenth street, was identified by the same witness as the driver of a car into which he saw Surguy enter.

The identifying witness, William Karrass, a student at Roosevelt High School, of the 2400 block of Eighteenth street, identified the defendants from the witness stand.

Hunt, who said that a hold-up man shoved a gun into his back, demanding his money, told the court that he could not identify Surguy as the bandit. Hunt wrested the gun from the hand of his assailant who then fled.

Police said that Surguy was a clerk in a drug store at the corner of Thirtieth and P streets and that Kiatta was a proprietor of a delicatessen in the Cavalier Hotel. Bond was set at $1,000 for each of the defendants.
